EMPEROR WILLIAM

AN EXTRAORDINARY SERMON ABOARD HIS YACHT HOHENZOLLERN.

Declares That God's Command to Go Out and Fight With Amelek is Again

Heard.

LONDON, August 2.-The Berlin correspondent of the Daily Chronicle, who reports Emperor William's extraordinary sermon of Monday on board the Hohenzollern, says that some of the most striking sentences attributed to the Kaiser are the following: "Once again has the heathen spirit of the Amalekites been raised in distant Asia. with great power and much cunning. With destruction and murder it will dispute the way to European trade and European culture. It will dispute the victorious march of Christian customs and Christian faith. And again is heard God's command, Choose us out men and go out to fight with Amalek."

"A hot and sanguinary struggle has begun. Already a number of brethren are over there under fire. Many more are traveling along hostile coasts. You have seen them, the thousands who, to the call of volunteers to the front will guard the empire, have assembled themselves to battle with victorious banners. We who remain at home are bound by other sacred duties. Woe unto as if we remain slothful and sluggish while they are engaged in their difficult and bloody work, and if, from our place of security, we only curiously look on while they wrestle in battle. Not only should we mobolize battalions of troops but we should also and shall set in mo tion an army of trained people to beg and entreat for our brethren that they may strike into the wild chaos with sword in hand. May they strike for our most sacred possessions.

"We would pray that God the Lord may make heroes of our men and lead those heroes to victory, and that then, with laurels on their helmets and orders on their breasts, he may lead them home to the land of their fathers Our fight will not be finished in one day; but let our hands grow weary o sink until victory is secured. Le our prayers be as a wall of fire around the camp of our brethren. Eternity will reveal the fulfillment of an old promise, 'Call upon me in trouble and I will deliver thee.' Therefore pray continuously.

The Vienna correspondent of the Times says: The Neue Freie Presse greets the decision of the British and American governments to advance to Peking independently with the greatest satisfaction. It believes that the resolution of these two powers will put an end to the paralysis occas oned by the unsolved question of the chief command, and inspire the combined forces with fresh life and vigor. It says that when once the Anglo-American troops assume the offensive the others will follow

FRANCHISE TAKEN AWAY FROM NEGROES.

White Voters of North Carolins Deprive Black Men of the Ballot.

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 2 .- After one of the most bitterly contested campaigns ever known in North Carolina the Democrats and white supremacy triumphed today by a majority of about 30,000. Today's election disfranchises the negro and changes the state legislature from its combination majority of Republicans and ropulists to straight Democratic, insuring the defeat of Marion Butler for re-election as United States Senator. The negroes as a general thing remained away from the

The election was for state officers members of the Legislature and county officers, and for an amendment to the state constitution looking to a practical elimination of the negro from politics, as its adoption disfranchises the bulk of the negro vote. By far the greatest interest centered in the fight over the amendment. The amendment was opposed by the fusion of Republi cans and Populists, headed by Senators Butler and Pritchard. There was a full poll of the Democratic strength, which, combined with a small negro and some Populist and Republican ballots, rolled up a large majority.

Democratic Chairman Simmonds say tonight: "I think we have a safe majority of 50,000, and at least fourfifths of the legislature."

ORDER OF ELKS NEW CHIEF.

Jerome B. Fisher Chosen as the Grand Exalted Ruler.

Now that the Honolulu lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks is in a formative state, the half hundred or so of its members will be interested in the personality of the recently elected grand exalted ruler.

Jerome B. Fisher, of Jamestown, N.
Y., is strongly identified with the order.
He was appointed a member of the committee on laws and appeals at At
J. H. FISHER,

Tolerand Carlot Committee on laws and appeals at Atlantic City in 1895. He was elected grand trustee at Cincinnati in 1896, and at Minneapolis in 1897, each year Honolulu, June 1, 1900.

laving been chosen chairman of the board. As an orator of wide repute ludge Fisher is annually in demand at Elk memorial services. Every year since he has been an Elk he has made n address, having spoken at Cincinnati, O.; Syracuse, N. Y.; Cumberland, Md.; Buffalo, N. Y.; Meadville, Pa., and Saginaw, Mich.

In 1898 Judge Pisher was urged to become a candidate for grand exalted ruler at the grand lodge meeting at New Orleans. Much strength came to im without his putting forth special fort, but in the interest of harmony ie withdrew from the contest, in the esult of which he heartily acquiesced. As a citizen Judge Fisher is warmly steemed in his city and in his State. le has made a success of the practice of aw, and has been elevated to the position of county judge, which he now occupies. In the prime of vigorous nanhood, with a well equipped and active brain, with a heart ever ready o respond to the cry of affliction, with t host of warm friends and a faculty of constantly adding to their number, fudge Fisher is looked upon as one of he foremost men of Western New fork. It is possible that he may make pilgrimage to the Pacific soon, and if so is quite likely to come here to instiute Honolulu lodge.

HEAVY MOUNTAIN BAINS.

Superintendent of Water Works Was Caught in a Down-Pour.

Andrew Brown, Superintendent of he Water Works, was up in the mounains, yesterday, and was caught in a remendous shower of rain. "It was a regular cloud-burst," he said last evenng, as he was contemplating his wet trouser legs, where the rubber coat did not reach. "Got pretty wet," he added, but I'm happy. There is plenty of water now and that's cheerful. We are geting the rains. We should have had them ast evening, but that's all right. Every reservoir and all the ditches are full to overflowing. We will now be able to inish the new pumping station at Pa-lama in perfect shape before being compelled to use it."

CHIEFS CEDE TUTUILA TO THE UNITED STATES.

Aunuu and Several Other Islands of the Samoan Group

Relinquished.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.-Commander Benjamin F. Tilley, in charge of the inited States naval station on the island of Tutuila, Samoan Islands, transmits in a recent report to the Navy Department upon the condition of affairs on the island an "instrument of cession" executed by the chiefs of Tutuila and the United States government. The document formally cedes and transfers to Commander Tilley, as the representative of the United States government, the islands of Tutuila, Aunuu and all other islands, rocks, reefs, foreshores and waters lying between certain degrees of latitude and longitude named, to erect the same into a separate district to be known as the District of

Tutuila The "instrument of cession" 'was signed by the marks of twenty-two chiefs, with their seals affixed, on the 17th day of April last, immediately prior to the raising of the stars and stripes over the naval station at Pango

Pango. The provisions of the document set forth that the chiefs of the towns shall be entitled to retain their individual control of the separate towns, provided the same shall be in accordance with the laws of the United States concerning Tutuila. It also provides that this government shall respect and protect the individual rights of the people to their land and property, and should the government re quire their lands it shall take the same on payment of a fair consideration. Commander Tilley visited Rose Island, the eastern member of the Samoan group, which lies seventy miles to the east of Manua, hoisted the American flag and took formal possession. This island is nothing but a coral atoil and is of no value.

Very stringent regulations have been ssued by Commander Tilley prohib iting the importation of firearms, dynamite and other explosives into Tutuila. An order recently issued forbids the importation of wines, beers or liquors except by permission of the commandant
